OVERVIEW:

The Income Tax Clinic Coordinator organizes and executes the annual USC income tax clinic. In this role, you will select and manage a group of student volunteers and organize training sessions in conjunction with the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency. You will ensure the clinic itself runs smoothly, maintain the confidentiality of all communications surrounding the clinic, and help breakdown the fear and stress students have around filing their taxes. Additionally, you will plan financial literacy events throughout the year for undergraduate students to attend.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Recruit an Executive Committee to assist with the implementation of the annual Income Tax Clinic(s).
- Recruit student volunteers throughout the Western campus including students from the Affiliated Colleges.
- Organize training sessions and provide training materials to volunteers in preparation for the service through various training modules provided by Canada Customs and Revenue Agency's Community Income Tax Program Coordinator and/or another agency which provides income tax preparation services outside of the USC.
- Maintain a complete list of all volunteers with the clinic to be provided the Coordinator for the following year.
- Ensure the confidentiality, security and accuracy of communication and income tax preparation between the clinics and its volunteers and the clinic and its clients and reinforce with the volunteers that the obligation to maintain confidentiality continues after the clinic closes.
- Comply with all legal requirements wherever the clinic provides its services.
- Acquire suitable location(s) for the clinic(s) and training seminar(s) on campus.
- Schedule trained volunteers to staff the clinic(s) in consultation with the Associate Finance and Secretary Treasurer.
- Provide up-to-date tax forms and equipment for the clinic(s).

- Publicize recruitment and Income Tax Clinic(s) using all available media on campus (i.e. The Gazette, CHRW, Western News, posters, press releases) in collaboration with the Secretary Treasurer and the Communications Officer.
- Provide telephone listings to volunteers and clients for the services provided by Canada Customs and Revenue Agency (CCRA) for inquiries, problem resolution programs and international tax services.
- Provide copies of the Declaration of Taxpayer Rights to all volunteers and clients and that all clients have signed the required liability forms.
- Ensure that all clients are provided with an electronic copy of their completed tax return after the confirmation of the successful e-filing.
- Ensure that all client files are destroyed within the timeframe prescribed by the CCRA.
- Ensure that all other records are kept securely and entrusted to the Secretary-Treasurer on completion of the clinics.
- Plan and execute (2) financial literacy events over the course of the year, with the goal of increasing financial literacy on campus.
- Adhere to USC bylaws, policies and procedures.
- Complete an interim report at the end of the fall academic term (December) and a final report at the end of the winter academic term (April) in compliance with the USC's Final Reports Procedure.
