The Honour W Award is presented annually to a maximum of six members of the Western Community. The award recognizes outstanding contribution to the community through volunteer service or extra-curricular activity, and academic achievement. Please describe examples of the nominee's service to the Western/London community in an essay of 500 words. This year we will be accepting one applicant from each of the following categories.

- (a) advocacy and perseverance
- (b) philanthropy and volunteerism
- (c) athletics & sportsmanship
- (d) arts & culture
- (e) student government
- (f) academics

Award value: $250.00
