Clubs Events Committee Positions

Please rank the positions below in order of your interest (1= most preferred):

Clubs Week Director - Plan and execute clubs training sessions at the beginning of the school year with the rest of the clubs events committee. Assist in the planning and execution of other Clubs Events

Clubs Training Director - Plan and execute Clubs Executive Training sessions throughout the school year with the rest of the clubs events committee. Assist in the planning and execution of other Clubs Events

Clubs Appreciation Director - Plan and execute the annual Clubs Awards Gala at the end of the school year with the rest of the clubs events committee. Find new and exciting ways to recognize the accomplishments of clubs throughout the year to enhance the student experience at Western. Assist in the planning and execution of other Clubs Events.

Clubs Feedback Director - Plan and execute two clubs feedback sessions for club executives(also called Clubs Council) to find ways to improve clubs events and better assist USC Clubs. Assist in the planning and execution of other Clubs Events.

[] Clubs Events Promotions - Work with the entire committee to create multimedia to promote the committee's events - whether through social media, print, or other marketing strategies. Work with the Clubs Outreach coordinator to finalize promotions. Assist in the planning and execution of other Clubs Events. Please submit one copy of your digital work (exp. Photoshop, InDesign, Illustrator work) to apply for this position. It could be promotional material you've done for other clubs in the past, artistic work, anything.

All position members must be available to attend regular meetings throughout the year (more frequent in September, weekly to biweekly throughout the year). Applicants must not be the President of any existing USC Club.

Application Questions (max.250 words each)

1. Why are you interested in being a part of the USC Club Events Committee?
2. What relevant experience do you have that makes you a valuable asset to the USC Club Events Committee?
3. Have you partaken in any USC Club events (exp. Clubs Awards Gala, Clubs Executive Training, Clubs feedback session, Clubs Week etc.). If so, what are creative ways to improve any of these events?
