

Food Support Service (FSS) Committee Applications

Food Support Service (FSS) is a Western University Student Council (USC) service that aims to reduce food instability on campus. Food Hampers are prepared for undergraduate students that request them. Each hamper contains enough non-perishable food and other items that can last for 3 days. This is a free and 100% confidential program.

We are looking for students interested in joining the FSS committee to take on the following roles:

1. Food Bank Ambassador
 - Host open office hours
 - Attend Food drive booths
 - Recruit volunteers for filling food hampers
 - 5 hour max time commitment biweekly

2. Social Engagement Team
 - Manage facebook, twitter and instagram feed with fresh content and post that educate student body regarding food insecurity and upcoming FSS events
 - Some knowledge of graphics design
 - 5 hour time commitment per week

3. Events Organizer
 - events organization and logistics

4. First Year Rep position
 - First year student engagement
 - Volunteer recruitment